

Poll unit detection bookmarklet

04/04/2024 1:58 pm EDT

The bookmarklet below can be used to search a webpage for the presence of the poll unit.

Drag and drop the link below into your browser's bookmarks tab.

Please disable any adblockers you use, then reload the page before attempting to detect the poll unit.

While visiting another web page, select the bookmark, and it will run a search for the poll unit code.

An alert will pop up indicating whether it was found or not. Following the alert, you will be navigated to the instance of the poll unit with a dashed blue border (see image below).

Widget Detection Bookmarklet

The screenshot shows a poll unit with a dashed blue border. The title "WHAT DO YOU THINK?" is at the top. A question asks if the user can read musical notation/sheet music. Four options are listed with radio buttons: "Yes, very well", "Yes, somewhat well", "No, I can't read it at all", and "Does not apply / Other". Below the options is a note about cookie usage and a link to the CivicScience Privacy Policy and Terms of Service. A "NEXT *" button is at the bottom. At the very bottom, there is a "You May Like" section.
